

Statement on Investment Risk Prevention and Fraud Awareness

Master Trademore Securities Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") has recently become aware of certain market rumors concerning the Company during its daily operations. To safeguard the legitimate rights and interests of our investors, the Company hereby issues the following statement:

1. Clarification of Corporate Independence and Risk Awareness

The Company is a licensed corporation regulated by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong (SFC). The Company hereby solemnly clarifies that it has no relationship or connection whatsoever with entities recently mentioned in market rumors, including Shenzhen Qibaijiu Commercial Management Co., Ltd., Shenzhen Hengfu Enterprise Development Co., Ltd., and Shenzhen Yinrui Investment Co., Ltd. Investors are strongly advised to remain vigilant, heighten risk awareness, and take effective measures to protect their interests.

2. Transacting Through Official Channels and Beware of Impersonation

The Company strictly adheres to regulatory requirements set by the SFC and operates in full compliance with the law. Investors seeking to contact the Company or engage in business operations must do so exclusively through the official contact details and authorized channels disclosed on the Company's official website. The Company has not authorized any external institution or individual to represent the Company in conducting business. Any business promotion activities carried out by parties impersonating the Company or its staff are entirely unaffiliated with the Company. The Company reserves all rights to pursue legal action against relevant entities and individuals.

3. Exercising Legal Rights and Verifying Credentials

If investors identify any investment anomalies or suspect fraud, they are advised to seek immediate legal remedies to protect their rights.
